65 Million Taxpayers Mailed Federal Forms

The mailing of 1966 Federal Income Tax forms 1040 and 1040A, and instructions, to some 65 million individual taxpayers has been completed at post offices throughout the nation, the Internal Revenue Service has announced.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

payers will receive the 1040 tax package while 44 million will receive the 1040A package.

The IRS said copies of the 1966 forms will be available at its offices as well as many postoffices and banks soon after the first of the year. Taxpayers who wish to file a different form than they did last year or who need various supporting forms and schedules to accompany their 1040 can obtain them at these locations.

The IRS says there are few changes in this year's 1040 since there were few changes in the tax law. Only change that has been made is the addition of a line where excess Social Security tax withheld may be entered separately.

IN ITS continuing program to improve and simplify tax forms the IRS is testing a questionnaire-type Form 1040Q during the 1967 filing season. A representative sample of 60,000 taxpayers in eight southwestern states will receive this form and have the option of using it instead of either the 1040 or 1040A.

Although this form is approximately five pages longer, it is expected that taxpayers will find it simpler to answer questions than to do arithmetic while flipping back and forth through the instruction booklet. The questionnaire Form 1040Q is not for use by any taxpayers other than those selected for the test.

Assignment TV

By TERRENCE O'FLAHERTY

HOLLYWOOD — It takes a lot of nerve to have lunch with Phyllis Diller — when she's doing the cooking, that is. Two of her basic rules for the kitchen are:

"Never serve meals on time. The starving will eat anything." And "Never taste the food while you're cooking it. You may lose your nerve to serve it."

That should have been enough warning, but it was also Friday the 13th.

"So who's superstitious, Diller?" she asked. "After all, Phyllis Diller has 13 letters in it."

She greeted me at the door to her dressing room which is actually a bungalow adjacent to the sound stage where her television series is filmed. It is approached by crossing the Southampton set, stumbling around dress racks, Aubusson carpets and pinball machines — through the French doors into the garden, across the fake green lawn, and out of the studio.

THERE, FACING the unwary stranger, is a simple brown plaster house with a screen door that bangs. The exterior is no preparation for what's to be found inside. The sitting room is awash with Victoriana, bouquets of artificial roses, stacks of chocolate boxes — half eaten — and a certificate naming her "Sweetheart of the Fleet" (presumably ours, but with Miss Diller you can't be sure of anything).

The star—gowned in a red tent and wearing a yellow and orange polka dot tie from Carnaby Street — blended into the decor without a trace. If she stopped talking you wouldn't know she was there.

Having lunch with us was a motley crowd including a former husband, two publicists and her secretary who has a most attractive pair of legs and Oriental eye makeup. Inasmuch as the dining room was roughly the size of a king-sized bed and included a sink, refrigerator, dining table, six chairs, two publicists, one secretary, one former husband and the two of us, it was a most intimate gathering and I still have the traces of egg foo young on my lapels to prove it.

ON THE TABLE were six huge dinner plates — each piled high with a different kind of food — one in front of each chair. There was Dungeness crab, a stack of Reuben sandwiches, Chinese eggs rolls, baked beans, hot tamales, and chicken-a-laking.

"Every three minutes we change dishes, passing them to the left!" announced Miss Diller. "It's a restaurant roulette. I invented it."

Bob Hope has been an important part of Miss Diller's success. She has a five-picture contract with him and recently returned from Hope's annual Christmas tour of American bases from here to Saigon. I asked how many performances they gave.

"Seventeen big shows including the time I stripped in the airplane," she replied, quick as a flash. That's the wild thing about interviewing Diller. Every question becomes a straight line.

"I'll never forget the first time I met Bob. I was playing in a ghastly little hole in Washington, D.C. The top of the bill was someone called the Irish Senorita who wore white duck pants and dinner jacket and she frightened me to death. The chorus girls had a contract where they HAD to mingle with the guests. They wore practically nothing and every time they leaned over everything fell out. It was SUPPOSED to!"

"I WAS terrible. It was an execution without a blindfold. I tried to sneak out the fire escape but Hope came after me. I stood behind a post all the time we talked. He had seen me on the Tonight Show and said he thought I was good. Well, let me tell you I went home that night with a new flint in my eye. If Bob Hope liked me, I was SUPPOSED to be okay."

As a parting bit of advice she said: "Never go to bed mad — stay up and fight!"

There's nothing like a little philosophy to wash down a hot tamale, chicken-a-laking, and a girl who has made it big and loves every minute of it.

Refunds Due Wage Earner

Capitol News Service

SACRAMENTO—Albert B. Tieburg, state director of employment, said about $3 million will be refunded in 1967 to wage earners who overpaid their disability insurance premiums last year.

Disability insurance is financed by a tax of 1 per cent of the first $7,400 of wages. Persons working for two or more employers during the year may have had too much deducted for this purpose as each employer must make a withholding for DI.
